The International Society of Appraisers and Chubb Announce an Educational Partnership

CHICAGO (April 25, 2016) - The International Society of Appraisers (ISA), the largest of the professional personal property organizations, will provide an 11-part, monthly webinar series on specialty collecting categories to Chubb's appointed independent agents and brokers.

Laura Doyle, North American Collections Management Specialist with Chubb, said Friday, "Chubb is thrilled to kick off a collaborative partnership with ISA through the launch of the Chubb Connoisseurship webinar series. The series will highlight the deep expertise of ISA appraisers, providing a network of resources nationally for our agents, brokers, and clients."

The series reflects the depth and diversity of expertise of ISA appraisers, covering a broad range of appreciable asset classes including such topics as fine wine, sterling silver, rare coins and American art.

"ISA is extraordinarily proud to have been chosen by Chubb as the professional personal property appraisal organization to provide connoisseurship training to their networks," commented Cindy Charleston-Rosenberg, past president of ISA and co-chairperson of the program committee.

The Chubb Connoisseurship Series began on April 5 and will continue through the beginning of 2017. This program is a continuation of the educational collaboration exchange between the two organizations which began in 2015 with Chubb's presentation to 170 ISA appraisers on "Changing Demographics in Collecting: Covering Passion and Investment Collections." The two organizations look forward to deepening this collaboration to the benefit of their clients.
